Rabbi's Message:

The following behavior only takes a few minutes each day. You will feel better, little by little, be a little calmer, even if you are in physical pain and/or psychic pain. You will be more grounded, emotionally balanced, self-aware, sympathetic, empathetic, spiritual, and grateful. You will be a better co-worker and friend, a better spouse, a better person, a better Jew. My God, what is this daily behavior?

It is prayer. Every night before we go to sleep, we pray out loud. For what? We praise the Master of the Universe for the majestic creation of our world and universe. We thank God for our blessings, even in the midst of our aggravations. We petition God for the release of the hostages in Gaza and for their health. We ask for the security and success of the IDF, US military, and others battling evil. We ask for the healing of others (and ourselves). Then we sing the Shema (Deuteronomy 6:5) and May The Words (Psalm 19:15). — And in the morning, our prayers take about 1 minute. We sing Modeh Ani (thank the good Lord we have another day) and the Shema.

Mute your TV, pause your YouTube, put down your phone, close your laptop. Take a couple of minutes to pray and develop a little bit more inner peace, courage, and strength.

PASSOVER. Pesach brings longer days and more sunshine — thank God!

Cultivate an attitude of gratitude. Put in the reverse, Judaism teaches us, never to practice ingratitude. This is especially apt as we approach our joyous spring festival of Passover. Pesach begins Monday evening, April 22. Our congregational Seder is Tuesday evening, April 23. As with our usual worship services, the Seder will be on our Live Stream feed via our website tintcleveland.org and YouTube. Join us in person or follow along at home. Food costs continue to rise, so please be a Seder Sponsor, whether you plan to attend or not.

Considering Jewish history, if ancient Israel was entitled to despise* a nation, it was Egypt, right? Over centuries, the Egyptians had enslaved our ancestors, and the Pharaoh had attempted to murder all newborn baby boys (Exodus 1:22). Yet later, after the Egyptians had been punished with the Ten Plagues and the Israelite slaves had been freed, the Torah taught: “You shall not abhor an Egyptian, for you were a stranger in their land.” (Deuteronomy 23:8)

Why would the Torah teach us NOT to hate the Egyptians? Rabbi Joseph Hertz, the late Chief Rabbi of the British Empire commented (Hertz Chumash page 847), the Israelites were commanded to remember that originally, hundreds of years earlier — during a severe famine in Canaan — they were allowed to enter Egypt as guests. Although later the Egyptians enslaved our ancestors, the initial act of kindness should never be forgotten.

And what about in our daily lives? If you have profited, in any way, from another person with whom your relationship later soured, you must not allow yourself to forget that earlier good the person did for you. This is very difficult for some of us, however, it has the power to free us from some of the angry memories which enslave us.

In the words of Rabbi Joseph Telushkin, "The prohibition against ingratitude applies not just to personal kindnesses and favors, but also to intellectual influences." Thus, be grateful to any person from whom you have learned. If you learned the basics from a person and now you have more knowledge than she, do not forget that without her initial teachings you may not be where you are!

In the coming days, make some moments to express your gratitude to another person. Banish the words of ingratitude which you might otherwise speak. Your relationships with others will be better. It will be fitting preparation for Pesach, our spring festival when life and hope spring eternal.

Pat joins me in sending good wishes, prayers, and blessings for a zissin (sweet) Pesach. AMEN

Kol tuv (all the best) and shalom,

*Look into documentary filmmaker Ami Horowitz. Horowitz travels the world asking questions to help people consider an alternative perspective. He goes to college campuses, on rafts with Syrian refugees, interviews a Hamas leader, and etc. Agree and/or disagree, we are grateful for his courageous reporting. His videos are found as "Ami on the Loose." After the Hamas terrorists' horrors of October 7, 2023, he has many videos, the most recent video is "Do Arab-Israelis stand with Israel?"

Meet Our New Young Adult

Mark Penkhasov, son of Alex and Natalya Penkhasov of Mayfield

Heights, and brother of Julia and Michelle, became a Bar Mitzvah on Friday, February 2, 2024

A student at Mayfield Middle School, Mark's favorite subjects are math and science. When not studying, he likes to play chess, soccer and video games.

As part of his Mitzvah project, Mark has been busy making peanut-butter and jelly sandwiches with other members of the congregation on Friday nights after Shabbat services.

If Someone You Know is in the Hospital, Tell Us.

Due to HIPAA laws, Hillcrest and other hospitals no longer notify Rabbi Matt that a member of our congregation is a patient. The only way he will know to call is if you call the temple office at 440-473-5120.

Shimon the Shul Mouse says:
Speak when you are angry and you will make the best speech you'll ever regret.

How do we know King Ahasuerus had an aquarium?
He gave Haman the royal seal.
